

La Chaîne des Rôtisseurs

Taste of the Yarra Valley at Balgownie Estate

celebrating

World Chaîne Day

Saturday 30th April 2022

I would like to once again thank you for your participation at the Intronisation Ceremony in Crowne Melbourne at our last event and would extend my invitation on behalf of the VIC Bailliage Committee for the much awaited World Chaîne Day celebrations that we have organised at the Balgownie Estate, Yarra valley.

This joyous day of celebrations join us with you family and friends as we taste the exquisite cuisine of Executive Chef Grant Flack and Head Chef Beth Candy paired with some of the best Yarra wines overlooking the picturesque valley.

Looking forward to seeing all of you there and some good times. Vive Chaîne !!

Thanks, and best regards,

Daman Shrivastav
Bailli Bailliage de Victoria Australia

Commandeur

International World Chaîne Day

This is THE day of the Chaîne!

World Chaîne Day takes place every year in April and brings together members of the Chaîne who want to take part in a festive day, and to meet in a unique context. World Chaîne Day spirit is one of celebration!

The best-known symbol of our Confrérie is our ribbons. Wear your ribbon on the day, and proudly show your membership.

Be active on social media. Follow what's going on and share what you are doing during the day. Post pictures and greetings and remember to use hashtags #chaineday, #worldchaineday, #chainedesrotisseurs, #vicchaîne

Show your pride at being a member, feel the spirit and global togetherness!

Join the celebrations on 30th April at Balgownie Estate, Yarra Valley.

Taste of the Yarra Valley at Balgownie Estate

Picturesque Yarra Valley

Less than an hour from Melbourne, the Yarra Valley & Dandenong Ranges is a whole life experience away, offering quality local food and wine, breathtaking scenery, romantic hideaways, and indulgent adventures. With over eighty vineyards dispersed throughout Healesville, Coldstream, Yarra Glen, Seville and Lilydale, the Yarra Valley is Australia's premier cool-climate region, and is renowned for Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz, and méthode traditionnelle sparkling.

Balgownie Estate

The much-awaited World Chaine Day celebrations have been organised by the Victorian Bailage of Chaine de Rôtisseurs at the luxurious Balgownie estate in Victoria's premier wine region. Executive Chef in charge of Food & Beverage, Chef Grant Flack and Head Chef Beth Candy are leading the Balgownie Estate Yarra Valley team in this next exciting phase as the resort re-launched its new restaurant, cellar door, function space and kitchen - following on from the devastating fire in mid-2020.

The luxurious new restaurant, 1309 @ Balgownie - taking its name from Balgownie Estate Yarra Valley's address - can cater for up to 100 guests who will be able to enjoy delicious meals made from local produce whilst enjoying the gorgeous views of Balgownie Estate Yarra Valley's vineyard. Led by Flack's high versatility, enthusiasm, and desire for continued knowledge, as well as his vast national and international experience, Balgownie Estate Yarra Valley's food & beverage team have driven their level of customer satisfaction and loyalty beyond all expectations.

Visit Balgownie Estate's website, here: <https://www.balgownie.com/yarra-valley/>

"After a tough enough period through COVID-19 and its many respective lockdowns, our team at Balgownie Yarra Valley also had to endure the devastation of fire destroying our on-site restaurant. However, through it all, there has been a clear focus on supporting our local regional producers and being able to deliver a fantastic authentic experience based around fine wine and delicious food. Our team can't wait to showcase what we have been working on to the public and provide them with the utmost luxurious and relaxing experience, as promised," expressed an excited Flack.

Flack is ably assisted by his Head Chef - Beth strong combination of culinary experience new role.

Candy – who also brings a and management skills to her

Theme of the event is to be GREEN - not just the colour, but also from a sustainability side of things.

Event Details:

Date: 30th April 2022

Location: Balgownie Estate, Yarra valley

Time: 12 - 3 PM

Dress Code: Smart casual with Chaîne regalia and touch of Green.

Specially for Chaîne members and guests:

- > 10% discount on wines purchased from Cellar Door
- > 15% discount on room rate accommodation (Rooms start from $192 a night)
- > Menu featuring key Yarra Valley suppliers and producers
- > Under 18's accepted for this family event

Look no further, limited spaces available, grab them before they are gone. Bookings strictly on first come basis. Book today using the link or QR code below.

Booking details:

<https://www.trybooking.com/BYMLG>

Closing date for bookings is Monday 17th April 2022.

Getting There:

Balgownie is a winery and accommodation destination offering classic experiences amidst the picturesque Yarra Valley providing pure comfort with 70 modern guest rooms and suites, brand-new Restaurant “1309 @ Balgownie”, a wine and cocktail bar, Cellar Door, function spaces, and a new day spa.

Just an hour drive, 60km thorough the M3 will bring you here, with an option of staying overnight with our Chaine special discounted rates.

We can also arrange a transport if more than 30 people show interest. Please click the link below to register yourself and guests for same.

<https://forms.gle/Rc247abzcUqG27Z77>